SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2008

It's the 2008 French Creek Council Training Extravaganza!

Training Extravaganza is a one day training event designed to help make your job as a Scout Leader easier, help you be a better leader and help your Scouts have a better Scouting year!

All registered Scout Leaders, anyone interested in becoming a Leader, or anyone interested in finding out more about the Scout program, are invited to come and enjoy this fun-filled, information-packed day!

You take the courses you need, or want more information on; so that you have the information you "need to succeed". You can choose up to 6 courses you think will be interesting, informative, helpful or just plain fun! New Leader Specific, New Leader Essentials, Youth Protection, Den Chief Training, Leave No Trace, Creative Art, Climb On Safely, Leatherwork and more... so many more to choose from!

New courses being offered this year include:
Troop Junior Leader Training (for youth)
Planning and Conducting a Scout's own service

Training Extravaganza will be held on the campus of Edinboro University, in Edinboro, PA.

Registration forms will be available in the Fall. Watch for them in your District drop files, on the Council web-site and in your e-mail box.

BRING YOUR WHOLE UNIT COMMITTEE!
SEE YOU THERE!
